OPEN FORUM DINNER LAUNCHES PLAN TO BOOST CITY'S COMMERCIAL CLUB

Business Men Speaking at Luncheon Urge That Organization Be Supported

YOUNG GIVES OUTLINE

President Tells of Work of Club and What It May Accomplish

The Open Forum luncheon of the Bismarck Commercial Club, held at noon today at the McKenzie hotel, was devoted to a discussion of the civic problems of the city, the work of the Commercial club and the possibilities of the organization.

President C. L. Young, of the club opening the discussion, briefly pointed out means by which the Commercial club has sought to earn the wholehearted support of the people of the city by undertaking and accomplishing its tasks. His outline of the club aims, work and accomplishments, follows:

"1. The Commercial club is organized community effort. Organization is prerequisite to community success. The club furnishes the machinery with which to further the communities enterprises.

"2. It is the city's official publicity agent. It advertises by trade tours, by magazine articles and by correspondence.

"3. It is the city's information bureau. It serves as employment agent, answers inquiries and conducts community surveys.

"4. It is an errand boy. It serves in this capacity for outside organizations and individuals to state and federal offices.

"5. It is the city's industrial promoter. Much effort has been devoted to the development of new enterprises, such as the flax fibre industry, and clay manufacturers.

"6. It is a clearing house of ideas. This is the purpose of these forum luncheons. Endless private interviews and correspondence are devoted to an exchange of ideas.

"7. It is the promoter of the general welfare. Much effort has been given to the organization of an English Lutheran college and we are assured that with improved financial conditions such an institution will be located here. Prizes have been given in corn, pig and poultry contests.

"8. It is the city's ambassador. When its interests are involved in its representatives speak for the city, and its business interests. The Red Trail is now threatened. We are trying to save it for the state. Along with others much energy has been expended on the Missouri river bridge project. The club has always sought to guard our railroad service, and secure favorable rates for our shippers.

"9. It is the city's glad hand as shown through the entertainment of conventions and the building of our splendid tourist camp site.

"10. In these times it must be still another. Community competition is intensified. Our merchants are fighting for trade. Rival cities are struggling for advantage. Business depression begets individual and community blues. Along with all else the club has been and must now be the community optimist, sunshine club. With the help of the club members, their moral support and financial aid the club can be all this and more."

Immigration Agent Talks.
W. E. Runey, of the state immigration department, who was present on invitation of the club, spoke of the work he has been doing in Iowa, Minnesota, South Dakota and Nebraska.

He said that education in rural districts in North Dakota, pointing to the large number of consolidated schools, and that he found many rent-seekers of land who are paying $15 an acre annual rental in Iowa who are thinking seriously of moving to North Dakota, where they can obtain a farm of their own.

F. L. Conklin advanced a new idea in the discussion. He said that in reading a report of the activities of the club for the last year he noticed that the scope of the club had broadened. Formerly, he said, it was along efforts to attracting new industries. It now also is clearing house for all civic activities looking to the betterment of the city. Because of this, he said, the club deserves and ought to have the support of people who are engaged in other than purely business pursuits.

BOOST YOUR CITY BY JOINING OTHERS IN COMMON EFFORT, SAY LEADERS OF THE CITY

Every forward looking citizen of Bismarck is invited and urged to become a member of the Commercial club and put his ideas into one hopper with those of an other progressive citizens of the city, from which may emerge the concentrated thoughts and energy of all people working for the betterment of Bismarck.

Why belong to the Commercial club? Here are some of the reasons given by members of the club:

"You believe in your city. You want to see it grow. Your interests will be benefited by making it a bigger, better city. We have the geographical location—we have the railroad facilities (and better ones in sight); we have a fine start toward a city. We need stronger co-operation between all the business men. We urge you to join us now—let us make the pull together."—A. W. Lucas.

"Doesn't every man owe it to this community to connect himself with the Commercial club? Isn't that a duty from which no business man can excuse himself? Our city has made wonderful progress the past two years, but the next two are going to eclipse them. Some of the big things are already in sight. Come in and help us with your membership, with your counsel, with your personality, with your advice. We need you to help us solve many civic problems and you need us. We can be mutually helpful. Mutually—that's the word."—W. E. Lahr.

"The Commercial club has made progress during the past years, strictly on a business basis. The demands upon our organization are constantly growing heavier, and it is to meet this increased demand, it must be made stronger in finance and membership than it has ever been before. This is the opportunity time for our city to develop a Commercial club that will not only quicken its commercial and civic life, but will be influential in national affairs, and as a step in this direction, a membership campaign is about to be launched which will be the biggest and broadest movement of its kind ever inaugurated."—H. J. Duemeland.

Increasingly Valuable.
The value of the Commercial club to the business growth of the city is becoming increasingly valuable and indispensable to our best interests. It is the incubator of civic achievement."—J. C. Anderson.

"A modern Commercial club is an organization through which public spirited citizens in a community may express themselves collectively on questions of community welfare, and through which they may make their collective desires effective. A modern Commercial club is a body of men and women acting in their capacity as citizens, not as representatives of any special group or class, and determined to work for the betterment of the community."—J. L. Bell.

SALOON GONE, SAYS PALMER

FORMER TRIBUNE MAN IS SLATED FOR HIGH POST

John T. Adams to Be Named Head of Republican National Committee

John T. Adams, of Dubuque, Ia., who is slated to succeed Will Hays as chairman of the Republican national committee according to dispatches, lived in Bismarck 30 years ago, when he worked on The Tribune as a news paper reporter.

Mr. Adams remembers vividly the term of his residence in the city. When Wallace Campbell, of this city, met Mr. Adams at Republican headquarters in Chicago last fall before election Mr. Adams remarked that he was in Bismarck 30 years ago. He recalled the row of frame buildings that was Main street, the gambling houses and other evidences of a typical frontier town.

Several Bismarck residents recall Mr. Adams as "Kid" Adams. He was, they say, a writer of much ability and was considered an exceptionally bright young man. After leaving Bismarck, Mr. Adams went to Iowa and engaged in the manufacturing business. He has, however, never lost his interest in the newspaper business and now retains interest in some newspapers.

Treiser, farmer, Willis, Minn., liabilities, $10,000; assets, $6,337.65, and property valued to be exempt, $850; and W. A. Martin, farmer of America, Cass county, liabilities, $12,014.60; assets, $1,000 and property valued to be exempt, $1,000.

STATE PAYING OFF DECEMBER COLLEGE BILLS

The State of North Dakota is paying off some December bills today. The bills being paid are chiefly for the Agricultural College of Fargo. Some other state bills have been held up during the last two months also. The bills of the Agricultural college being paid amount to about $18,000.

Disbursements of the state have been cut to a minimum during the last two months. It was stated at the auditor's office that the fact that tax collections have been very slow necessitated the holding up of some bills. It was denied that any were held up at the request of the Bank of North Dakota.

Pay-rolls have been met, it is asserted, and some of the pressing expenses of the Agricultural college for the month of January were paid before the December disbursements were issued. While the general fund of the state was $191,803.30 on December 31, 1920, the book balance had increased to $222,883.97 on the last day of February as shown by the accounts of the office of the state treasurer.

The state treasurer paid out $52,000 to the account of the Agricultural College from Dec. 24 to January 3, but paid out only $30,000 from January 3 to March 16.

A decrease in the amounts paid out for the University of North Dakota since the Industrial Commission issued its order to "go slow" on the bank of North Dakota, also is noted. A total of $27,500 was paid out in December $50,655 in January and in February the amount dropped to $11,48. This far in March $28,000 has been paid out.

The records of the state treasurer's office show that during February tax collections amounted to $393,622.78 but only $292,883.97 in cash was actually disbursed through the state bank for payment of the bills of the state. It was stated at the auditor's office that bills had been held up during the last two months. The explanation was given that tax money had not come in in amounts equal to last year. During February, 1921, tax collections for the previous year remitted by county treasurers amounted to $81,860.44 as compared to $183,938.49 in February, 1920 for taxes of the previous year.

Tax collections are now pouring in to the coffers of the state treasury and thence to the Bank of North Dakota in large amounts enabling the bank to pay off its $1,000,000 Chicago loans and other bills. The period of heavy tax collections will end within a short time the passing of the next few weeks and the Bank of North Dakota will be up against the problem of paying current bills.

ALLEN STRIKES AT N. P. LEAGUE; HITS VIOLENCE

Governor of Kansas Says That He Will Protect League Organizers

ASKS LEGION SUPPORT

Statement Urges Citizens to Cease Attacks on Speakers

Topeka, Kan., Mar. 18.—(By Associated Press.) In connection with an order for an investigation of the refusal to permit Nonpartisan league speakers to address a meeting at Marion Wednesday night Governor Henry J. Allen today issued a statement in which he asserted that he was opposed to the league movement but that every effort would be made to see that league workers received fair treatment.

The governor characterized the league movement as one to preach a class-minded doctrine.

Former U. S. Senator J. R. Burton, who was escorted from Great Bend last Saturday night, was one of those refused to speak at the Marion meeting, according to reports reaching the governor's office.

To Bring Officials In.

Gov. Allen directed the attorney general to bring Marion officials here and question them concerning the affair. Gov. Allen's statement follows:

"It is my intention to exhaust every power of my office to prevent future disorders and to protect the name of this state and rights of its people under our laws, guaranteeing free speech.

"I am utterly out of sympathy with Townsleyism. I realize that the leaders of that movement who are going over this state preaching a class-minded doctrine and collecting $15 for membership do not represent any philosophy that is of value to this commonwealth. Nevertheless, these promoters are entitled under the law to be heard."

The statement then asserts that the league has failed in North Dakota and declares that attempts to interfere with their feelings only assists in giving publicity to the movement.

"I believe that in the effort to maintain order in Kansas I shall receive the support of every fair-minded member of the American Legion, the statement says in conclusion."

RENTERS FROM INFLATED LAND-VALUE SECTIONS ARE LOOKING TOWARD N. D.

Stories circulated over the country to the effect that North Dakota went through a smaller inflation of land values than nearly any other section of the country is bringing many inquiries from prospective settlers, according to George N. Keniston, secretary of the Bismarck Commercial club.

Recently there have been more inquiries concerning land values in North Dakota than during any period in the past several years, he said.

Mr. Keniston, "Hardly a day passes when we do not receive a request for information about Bismarck county land offerings."

"The inquiries come mostly from states bordering on the west coast of the United States," he said.

CLARA HAMON, NOT GUILTY ON MURDER CHARGE; TO VISIT HER RELATIVES; JURY OUT 40 MINUTES

Ardmore, Okla., Mar. 18.—Freed of the murder charge of shooting Jake L. Hamon, Clara Smith Hamon planned to visit Wilson, the home of her sister. Later she will go to El Paso, where her father is seriously ill.

Mrs. Jake L. Hamon, who retired to her home when the jury left the court room yesterday, has not been notified of the "not guilty" verdict.

The jury was given the case at 4:30 p. m. yesterday and returned to the court room 40 minutes later. B. F. C. Laughridge, 73 years of age, foreman, said only one ballot was taken, a secret one, confirmed by rising vote. Clara Hamon obtained the information fully seven minutes before the verdict was rendered in open court and sat, surrounded by members of her family, half smiling, half afraid to believe the odds of assurance that were bent toward her.

When T. W. Champion, mounted the bench and received an affirmative response to this question: "Gentlemen, have you reached a verdict?" her face followed the motions of the judge as he read the verdict from Mr. Laughridge, walked across the court room and handed it to the clerk, who read it in a nervous, falsetto voice.

CAUGHT IN BROTHER'S ARMS

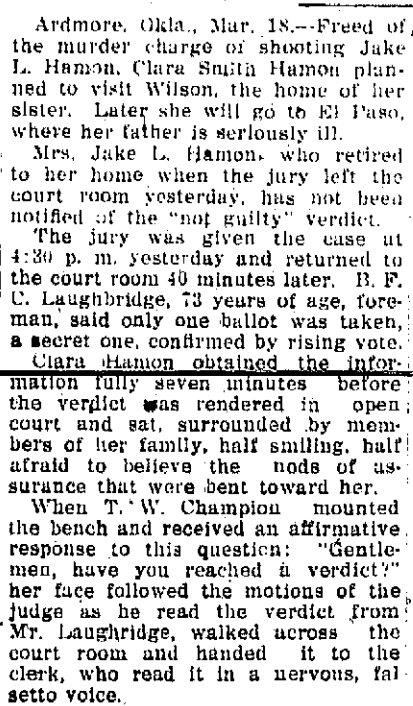

Clara Hamon gasped audibly in the tensely silent court room, dropped forward in her seat, only to be seized from behind by her younger brother, "Jimmie," squeezed violently and kissed on the left cheek. Tears came to her eyes and the other members of her family cried with her as she crossed to the jurors and haltingly thanked them for their verdict.

She came to the press room to thank the newspaper workers, clinging to the arm of Sheriff Buck Garrett and her brother and, with tears streaming down her face, said:

"I am the happiest woman in the world."

She used a secret passage from the court room to escape the crowds which threatened to overwhelm her and went to a lower floor of the county building where she sat for some time receiving congratulations.

Her future course is undecided, she said.

WORK ON NEW BUILDINGS NOT TO BE RUSHED

Board of Administration Member Says Work to Proceed Slowly

Immediate plans for starting work on new buildings authorized by the legislature at institutions will not be started according to J. I. Cahill, member of the board of administration who, with other members of the board has returned from a trip of inspection of several institutions.

The appropriations, which are for the biennial commencing July 1, are for buildings for several educational and a few charitable institutions.

Some buildings at the hospital for the insane, Jamestown, which have been condemned and are unused, will be torn down, he said, and work on the new chapel building will be started sometime during the summer. It will be some time before plans are drawn for any of the proposed buildings, however.

The members of the board visited the institution for the blind at Bathgate, the school for the feeble minded at Grafton the University at Grand Forks, the Agricultural college at Fargo, the Valley City Normal and Jamestown hospital.

WEHE NOTIFIED HE MUST STAND ANOTHER TRIAL

Governor to Hold Hearing Again on Charges Against Commissioner

Laurens J. Wehe has a notice today from Governor Frazier that he must stand another hearing on charges preferred against him to remove him as a commissioner of the Workmen's Compensation Bureau.

The notice sets Saturday, Mar. 26, at 10 A. M. as the time for hearing the matter in the governor's office.

Wehe and his counsel, Theodore Koffel, were not ready today to announce their decision until they had had time to consider the governor's notification. The notification, they said, followed a demand upon C. A. M. Spencer, appointed as Wehe's successor, for the office.

What Notice Says.

The notice of the Governor tells Wehe to take notice "that my order suspending you from the office of Workmen's Compensation Commissioner made and executed and served upon you on the 19th day of April, 1920, has at all times since the date of said service been in full force and effect, and is now and will be continued in full force and effect until the final determination of this matter."

The notice further informs Wehe that he may have the privilege of cross examining witnesses and introducing evidence in controversy the charges made against you."

The governor, in holding that the order suspending Wehe has been and is now in full force and effect over looks the decision of Judge Neussle of district court and the supreme court. Mr. Koffel asserts. The trial court declared and all proceedings in connection with the attempted removal of Wehe were illegal and void, and the supreme court, in its decision, said that Wehe was restored to office "the same as if no order of removal had ever been made."

When Wehe and Koffel made demand upon Mr. Spencer for the office Mr. Spencer said that he must consult the governor and attorneys.

MARRIED WOMEN TEACHERS NOT TO BE EMPLOYED

Committee of Local School Board Decided Against Retention

REASONS ARE GIVEN

Board Also Discusses Salary Schedule for Ensuing Year

The teachers' committee of the city school board, given power to act by the board itself, decided last night upon a policy of not employing married women as teachers in the city schools, except as principals.

A discussion of the salary schedule of the schools for the coming year was also discussed. The city teacher list will not be completed for sometime.

In adopting a policy against employing married teachers in the schools the committee was actuated by several views of the matter, it was said. Among other reasons, it was stated, the employment of numerous married teachers was more or less of a "war measure," because of the scarcity of teachers which has existed; that most cities in the country have adopted a policy of not employing married teachers; and that they felt it unfair competition with unmarried women.

If the policy is adhered to there will be many teachers in the local schools to be replaced, some of them of exceptionally long service.

LADD SINCLAIR ASK GOV. ALLEN TO TAKE STEPS

Want Thorough Investigation of Mobbing of Kansans

LEGION EXONERATED

Washington, Mar. 17.—Governor Allen of Kansas was urged in a telegram by Senator Ladd and Representative Sinclair of North Dakota to investigate mob attacks on Nonpartisan League organizers at Great Bend and to clear up charges that members of the American Legion were involved.

Senator Ladd is at Fargo but Mr. Sinclair explained that he had telegraphed permission to sign his name to the protest.

"Knowing your sense of fairness and in view of the wide publicity given the mobbing of two Nonpartisan League organizers at Great Bend," the message said, "we respectfully request that you promptly start investigation of the lawless action in your state by alleged members of the American Legion and others opposing the farmers' movement. Such action reflects seriously not only upon your state but upon the nation for it is an unconstitutional, un-American, unjustifiable and cowardly invasion of the rights of free men. We further suggest that you ask the co-operation of the commander of the American Legion in clearing said organization of the nationwide charges that it was involved in."

INVESTIGATION ORDERED.
Great Bend, Kan., March 17.—The ordering of an official investigation by Attorney General R. J. Hopkins and a statement by John N. Floyd, member of the American Legion executive committee, exonerating the legion from all blame in the affair were developments yesterday in regard to the Nonpartisan League disturbance here last Saturday and Sunday night, when J. O. Stevie and C. O. Parsons, League organizers, were tarred by a crowd said to have numbered 300 men and former U. S. Senator Burton, of Kansas, his wife and a Professor Wilson who was traveling with them, were ushered from town.

Another feature was a statement by Judge D. A. Banta in reply to one made yesterday by Mr. Burton in which the latter accused Burton county officials of not having taken proper steps to restrain the crowd.

In his statement, Judge Banta said Stevie was partly to blame because he returned to this city after having been warned to leave and not return.

The official investigation ordered by the attorney general will be conducted by Phil Weber, county attorney of Barton county, the latter announced today.

MARKETING OF FARM PRODUCTS BEING TALKED

county farm bureaus, already long established.

The grain marketing plan, which has the federation's support and is to be presented to farmers in the various states between now and April 8, is the outcome of six months' work. It was drawn up by farmers and other experts under a Committee of 17 with C. H. Gustafson, of Lincoln, Neb., chairman. As head of a big co-operative organization of farmers in Nebraska, Mr. Gustafson had already made a success in this field.

The livestock committee appointed by the American Farm Bureau Federation to devise a national livestock marketing plan starts with the same aim as the federation's grain committee, but as it was created later it is just getting into its labors at the present time. This is called the "Committee of Fifteen."

While the two grain plans differ in detail and elasticity, each calls for a national sales agency. Whether the livestock committee will similarly advise a national livestock commission sales company is one of the questions before it. Mr. Gustafson is also chairman of this committee and H. W. Mumford, of the Illinois Agricultural Association is secretary. Dr. Mumford reports there are 5,000 co-operative livestock shipping associations and half a dozen co-operative livestock commission companies in the country.

Co-operative business being transacted at the present time by farmers runs into the hundreds of millions of dollars, according to figures collected here. The capital farmers have invested in co-operative grain elevators, totals other millions. The national organizing movement has also touched the hundreds of farmer-owned co-operative elevators, and they recently get together here in a national convention.

Co-operative purchasing of supplies by farmers' organizations, prominent among them the elevators, has made rapid progress in several states, farmers owning coal mines and buying output of entire factories.

Legislation to facilitate co-operative enterprise has been advanced in a number of legislatures this winter.

ALL OF STATE INDUSTRIES TO FEEL DECISION

more than twenty-five years the farmers of this state, agricultural interests and producers incessantly carried on an agitation for state-owned utilities and industries. Finally it came to pass that the people, in their sovereign capacity, and in the exercise of their elective franchise, determined that the state should engage in its sovereign capacity in industry, enterprise and business on its own account, and the people in their sovereign capacity, having so determined, it became necessary to amend section 185, and it was amended.

Judge Grace says that if the majority opinion that the Bank of North Dakota is a private or quasi-private institution is correct then the North Dakota has loaned its credit, or money, to the extent of $2,000,000 to the Bank of North Dakota.

"If this were true, which it certainly is not, then the loaning or giving of money, or making donations to the Bank of North Dakota, in the manner it has been done would be a direct violation of section 185 as amended which prohibits the state from loaning or giving its credit, making donations to individuals, associations or

DODGE PLACES
NEW TRUCK ON
AUTO MARKETOne and One-Half and Two Ton
Capacity Offered by Firm

M. D. Gilman, dealer in Dodge Brothers cars, makes the announcement that trucks in 1-1/2 and 2-ton capacity, are now offered with the Dodge Brothers line of passenger cars, and in addition to the standard 3-1/2 ton business car.

The specifications of this truck equipment are most attractive and the prices bring heavier trucks down to a point that will immediately appeal to purchasers, as the ton and a half outfit, including cab and body, and delivered here in Bismarck is only $2,200.00 while the two-ton truck with the same complete equipment is only $2,650.00 delivered in Bismarck. The 3-1/2 ton business car is $1,420.00 in Bismarck. Truck buyers and owners will be quick to appreciate these low prices for outfits so complete, and of such capacity.

Combined with Dodge Brothers well known power plant, is a one piece pressed steel frame 139-1/4 inches long, 4-1/2 inches deep and 3-1/2 thick. The rear axle is integral gear drive, geared 7 to 1, with a capacity of 4,200 pounds on the spring pads. The springs are of alloy steel, 46 inches long, 3 inches wide and of 10 leaves. The wheelbase is 140 inches, providing frame space behind the cab for a 9-foot body. The tire equipment is pneumatic, and on the rear of the larger truck is 36x6 truck cords, and on the smaller, 34x5.

In the hands of some 4,000 users, these trucks are proving universally successful—this coupled with Dodge Brothers name plate on these trucks, offers to buyers, evidence of a line whose value is so well established as to be above question.

Samples of these trucks will soon be on display at the local salesroom and deliveries can now be made with reasonable promptness.

MC DOWELL SAYS

Ninth District Director Explains
Workings of National Financial System

Wesley C. McDowell, a director in the Federal Reserve bank of the ninth district, located at Minneapolis, in an address to the retail bankers at Fargo recently explained how the reserve system works and the way in which it benefited the farmers of the state.

Mr. McDowell said in part:
Less Politics.

"Less politics and more sound business sense will pull North Dakota through."

"The situation in North Dakota now is so complicated that it is hard to know just where to begin with reference to the Federal Reserve bank," the speaker continued. "One of the points most frequently made is that the Federal Reserve bank has not given North Dakota proper support. It should be made very clear that only a small portion of the banks in North Dakota are members of the Federal Reserve system, but that these relatively few banks have received strong support since the early part of 1920. They did not liquidate with the bank as a result of the crop movements in 1919 and the Federal bank carried them over the first part of 1920, with a substantial amount of rediscount paper."

"Since October, last, the Twin City member banks had loaned to country banks and bankers $75,000,000 and the same banks in January had effected a reduction in this amount of only $3,000,000 leaving outstanding $72,000,000 although they had liquidated a very substantial amount of their rediscounts. These loans to member banks are very largely extensions of credit to non-member country banks."

"In view of the very bitter condemnation of banks and bankers in North Dakota, it is very interesting to ask what the conditions would have been in North Dakota if it had not been for the support of the Federal Reserve bank and the large city banking institutions which have been so bitterly assailed."

Remedy Suggested.

"North Dakota can do two things immediately which will very materially relieve its own strain on credit. If it will act wholeheartedly and sincerely. It can bring its eligible and well managed non-member banks into membership in the Federal Reserve system and thereby contribute to the capital on deposit in the Federal bank. Increasing the credit available to the banks of North Dakota in proportion to the state's contribution to the resources of the Federal Reserve bank, or it can follow more effectively the recommendations, calling for such liquidation as is possible and practical, thereby reducing its borrowing and providing a margin of reserve funds against the spring demands which are impending."

Mr. McDowell explained briefly the entire Federal Reserve bank system, how the money of the nation is distributed as equally as possible over the entire country and not allowed to accumulate in one area, as in the Minneapolis bank operates in regard to the ninth district and other matters of importance bearing on the situation.

POPULAR NURSE WEDS SALESMAN

On St. Patrick's day at five o'clock in the evening Miss Loretta E. Ankenman became the bride of A. L. Pfeffer. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's mother. A color scheme of green and white was effective in the floral decorations for the table at which covers were laid for members of the family only.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Sara West Ankenman who has made her home in Bismarck for a few years. After graduating as a nurse from St. Alexius two years ago the bride practiced her profession in the city. The groom is a well known traveling salesman for Stone Orlean and Wells with headquarters at Mandan.

Two sisters of the bride were the out of town guests at the wedding: Miss Louise Ankenman of Dickinson and Miss Anna May Ankenman of Seattle. The happy couple left last evening on No. 4 for an eastern trip and will be at home at the Lewis & Clark Hotel in Mandan after April 1st.

Their host of friends in Bismarck wish for the young couple all happiness and success.

MRS. RILEY HOSTESS.

A jolly party of young people were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Riley at their apartment in the Kupitz block on the evening of St. Patrick's day. The evening was happily spent in singing Irish melodies and in playing five hundred. Mrs. Riley served a dainty repast during the evening.

NATIONAL MUSIC CONTEST.

The National Federation of Music Clubs, celebrates its Silver Anniversary on June, 1921. It is hoped to make this a noteworthy event. Two of the aims of the federation are—To make America the musical center of the world and "To help in bringing music to every individual in the United States."

This year, prizes ranging in value from $25 to $5,000 are offered in contests in piano, vocal and violin playing in musical compositions, to Americans only.

We have now in the United States, several symphony orchestras, better than any in Europe. We can lead in other lines if the wonderful plans of this federation are carried out.

The questions are, has music done anything for us, collectively or individually? Do we owe music anything? Should everyone help to carry out these plans?

Musicians responded to many appeals, have helped to finance many movements. Now, any help extended to them will be most highly appreciated.

A silver offering on the silver anniversary. Do we not all see the justice of this? Can we not as individuals and organizations be a part of this great plan "To Make America the Most Musical of All Nations."

Half of the amount collected by any organization may revert to its treasury, to be used, it is hoped, for musical purpose in the town.

All are invited to take part in this

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

TRY IT ONCE, AT LEAST

Meredith Nicholson, novelist, writes a line of quotation from some poet, below his name, when he signs a dinner check at a club or hotel in his home city, Indianapolis.

A friend who tells about it records that a day they ate together the novelist signed the check with "Love is not love which alters when it alteration finds."

The waiter went away, knitting his brow in an earnest effort to dig some meaning from the line, then grinned and slapped his leg when he found it.

Nicholson's idea is interesting. Edification of waiters and cashiers need not be the only object.

It would be no less amusing and beneficial to those who take the trouble to think of a line to write. If one wrote on a restaurant check which is to be paid in cash, not signed, the poetry might help to take one's mind off the check's total.

MONKEYS AND BABIES

"We injected in a monkey 8 cc. of the blood of a measles patient," says a report recently made by Dr. Charles Nicolle and Dr. T. Conseil, famous microbiologists of the Institute Pasteur, Paris, France. The report continues:

"Nine days later it's (monkey's) temperature had risen to 107. Forthwith we inoculated with the blood of this monkey two other animals and an infant.

"After nine days of inoculation the child presented all the classical symptoms of the malady. The blood of the child was then in turn injected into three monkeys, etc., etc."

Have we come to the threshold of an era in which babies are to be used like monkeys, guinea pigs, and rabbits in laboratories?

If it is, why not limit the microbiologist and the surgeon to those humans who are old enough to consent to being made subjects of experimentation?

Why choose a tiny, helpless baby?

LARGER REAL WEALTH

The United States is not the only country wrestling with a deflation problem. All of the world faces it.

Of the nations America and Great Britain seemingly are most optimistic—and they have the best reasons for being so.

Reginald McKenna, of large London bank interests, and who was British chancellor of the exchequer during a portion of the war, indicates how Britain feels confident of carrying out deflation with the least harmful effects upon trade and industry:

"The fall in price will be very gradual, and though a less rate of profits will be made than if prices were stable, it will be on a larger quantity, and there can still be room for a fair return on capital and a fair reward for labor.

"This is the kind of deflation at which we ought to aim—a deflation which will be brought about by a larger supply of the commodities we all need, a greater surplus for foreign export, and a larger total of real wealth."

Such a program of deflation would be ideal for America to adopt, don't you think?

WHO ARE THE GREATEST?

Everybody has the right to select his own "greatest men and women." Probably no two would agree on the dozen "greatest." For "greatest" doesn't mean the same to each. There are some who would never include the first Napoleon; and there are others who could make up no list without him.

But there are many who will agree that a certain little boy comes about as near to picking the "greatest" as mortal ever came. The class at school was asked to write down the names of the dozen "greatest" men and women.

This little fellow was the first to hand in his paper. It read:

Mother, father, Uncle Henry, Grandma, Grandpa, Aun Blanche, Tris Speaker, George Washington, President Wilson, Pershing, Fatty Arbuckle, and Miss Geddes.

It may be explained, to the unknowing, that the Miss Geddes referred to, is the little fellow's school teacher. Mr. Speaker is a well-known baseball player, his team won a world championship; Mr. Arbuckle occupies a large portion of the movie screen almost every night.

There may be some difference of opinion as to a few of these "greatest" men and women. There are those who would place "Baby" Ruth ahead of Mr. Speaker, and others who would include Mary Pickford and exclude Mr. Arbuckle.

But who is there to say that mother and father are not the rightful leaders in any small boy's list of "greatest?"

"A STYLE OF HER OWN"

"She's a woman who has a style of her own." It is a statement sometimes meant as a compliment; more often as an excuse.

"A style of her own." But just what is style? We learned from our copybooks at school that style in literature is "the expression of personality through highly developed technique."

Well and good for literature—and in some cases for clothes! But the former nobody need read unless he wants to, while the latter all the world must look at unless we walk the streets with closed eyes.

It is only the ultra-clever woman, Sarah Bernhardt, for instance, who can successfully develop a style of her own. Mary of England also sets her own styles. But these two women are queens, one of the stage, the other of an empire.

If the style in dress is never freakish, never a pose, and above all never accentuates personality.

The wise woman fights shy of a style of her own. She knows it is a delusion and a snare. So she selects what other people are wearing, keeping in mind two things:

That gentleness is never conspicuous.

That "beauty is a joy forever."

TIME TO THINK

How prison bars clarify the vision!

How many tragedies would be averted if only men and women were given to see from the outside as they see from the inside!

A moment of anger; a fit of jealousy; a passion for revenge; the flash of a pistol, then prison bars.

And, with the prison bars, time to think. Time to recall the days of innocence before the glare of the bright lights dazzled the vision and the hectic night life seared the moral sense.

Time to think of the simple life lived back in the old home where the homely virtues satisfied and contentment reigned.

Yes, time to think of these and a thousand other things that pass in review behind prison bars; things that have been driven out of mind in the convivial grill room when serious thought dared to intrude.

Time to weigh values and see with the horror of despair how the fleeting joys whose pursuit has them brought into a felon's cell, shrink and fade out of sight when compared with the solid virtues they have ignored in their mad chase for exciting pleasures.

The solitude of a cell brings men and women face to face with the tragedy of wasted opportunity and the things they have left behind to assume astounding proportions.

Liberty was never so sweet; virtue was never so beautiful; self-control was never so admirable; honor was never so glorious, as when viewed from behind the bars of a prison cell.

THE PLUM TREE

The faithful are gathering beneath the local federal plum tree to wait for the luscious fruit that is about to fall.

The trees in the administration's orchard are heavy with ripening postmasterships, district attorneyships, revenue collectorships and other desirable offices.

Patronage has always been the bitter that went with the sweet of the presidential office. No president since Andrew Jackson has been exempt from its torments. Some have protested against its exactions on their time, their patience, their good nature and their peace of mind. Others have suffered in silence.

A month or so after he was elected president, Harding delicately suggested something of what he was already then enduring from the pursuit of place seekers and their friends.

"Turn the rascals out" first became a party slogan in the administration of Jackson, who believed in rewarding his friends and giving his enemies what he thought was coming to them.

Up to Jackson's time few men had been removed from federal office for political reasons. President Adams removed only ten men, one a defaulter; Jefferson 39; Madison, 5; Monroe, 9; the younger Adams, 2.

Clay, Calhoun and Webster condemned the spoils system, but not until 1871 were steps taken to curb it by civil service regulations. Later the assassination of Garfield by a disappointed spoilsman resulted in an enlargement of the civil service list.

Cleveland at first set his face against spoils and the beginning of his administration was anything but satisfactory to politicians who wanted a clean sweep. But in the end Cleveland yielded to pressure, and before the third year of his administration had closed, about 45,000 out of 56,000 officeholders had been ousted.

A partisan has presented the new administration with a new broom to which is tagged the injunction "Use It."

Old King Coal isn't such a merry old soul after a mild winter.

Germany will find the booming of industry better for her health and wealth than the booming of cannon.

When a man in debt goes to work, or the poorhouse; the same path lies before the nation similarly situated.

LEGION NOT IN TAR MOB

Great Bend, Kan., March 18.—The ordering of an official investigation by Attorney General E. J. Hopkins and a statement by John M. Floyd, member of the American Legion executive committee, exonerating the Legion from all blame in the affair was developed last night in regard to the Northwestern League disturbance here last Saturday and Sunday night, when J. O. Stevns and C. D. Parsons, league organizers, were tarred by a crowd said to have numbered 200 men and former United States Senator Burton of Kansas, his wife and a Professor Wilson, who was travelling with them were ushered from town.

LEADY FILES APPEAL BOND

Fargo, N. D., March 18.—An appeal bond was filed in the case of two of the three defendants convicted in United States district court last Friday of conspiring to violate the national prohibition act in transporting a cargo of whisky from Moorhead to Stour Falls, S. D. Oct. 6 last. The required amount of bond set by Judge J. W. Woodrough Saturday in sentencing the prisoners was given for Robert B. Leady, former acting prohibition group chief of the Fargo office, sentenced to one year and one day, and E. O. Haugen of Moorhead sentenced to 30 days and a fine of $100.

Minot, March 18.—Emma Miller colored, who entered a plea of guilty to having narcotic drugs in her possession when her case was called in the district court, was sentenced to serve six months in the penitentiary and pay a fine of $500.

The Miller woman was one of four arrested by Minot police in the recent offensive against the dope ring in Minot. A fifth, also believed to be identified with drug traffic, left the city when the other four were arrested.

The other three are out on bonds pending their appearance in district court.

"Pape's Diapepsin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs in order at once!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt, if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; black fumes and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion, if your foot is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.

EVERY FARMER SHOULD PUT IN SOME MARQUIS

Three thousand good farmers throughout the Northwest have been asked their opinion regarding the variety of wheat which ought to be sown. More than twelve hundred answered and the great majority state positively that Marquis is, in spite of everything, the best wheat to grow.

However, in a great many localities there will be a great deal of wheat of other kinds raised for various reasons, but to all of these farmers who intend to change their wheat, it is suggested that whatever their decision, that they put in a field of Marquis at the very beginning of the sowing season.

It is not possible for farmers with a large acreage to get all of the wheat in early, but it will be good business for the first few days of sowing to put in Marquis. Marquis put in during the first three or four days of seeding and on the best ground generally turns out well. Early sowing cannot be over-emphasized. Everybody knows that Marquis is the best quality and that everything else is merely a stop gap. Good milling wheat always brings a premium and if this is a favorable year Marquis will vindicate itself in quality, quantity and price.

There is room for some good Durum, not more than 10 per cent of the total spring wheat crop, however, can possibly be profitable. D-5, Red Durum or rust-proof wheat (all one and the same thing), does not make good bread nor macaroni. Its only merit is weight.

TESTING SEED WHEAT FOR GERMINATION

If wheat has become heated or mouldy in storage or for many other reasons, it may not grow at all or else have only a low percentage of germination. It is advisable therefore to make a few germination tests from different parts of your seed wheat.

How to Do It

This may be done by taking an ordinary blotting paper, folding like a book, wet it, open flat; count one hundred kernels just as they come; place them on one-half of the blotting paper so that they do not touch; tear a strip of cloth about two inches wide and ten inches long, put it in the fold of the blotter; fold as before. Pile up your tests, wrap a cloth or piece of waxed paper around the tests, leaving the ends open, letting the cloth strips hang down, like the wick in a lamp, in a glass of water. This will keep the blotting paper always wet. Don't let the test freeze or dry out. Always keep water in the glass. Read the test after seven days; separate into three lots; strong, those growing an inch or more; weak, those just starting with short stems; dead, those which have not germinated at all.

Good seed should sprout 95% strong. If test is poor, fan the seed again.

Good Wheat in Rust Years.

"In wheat production, I would emphasize careful selection of seed, soil preparation, rotation of crops, cleaning of seed, early seeding, and more live stock," says Mr. G. E. Brunstad of Trill Co., N. Dak. "I find that I can raise good wheat in ordinary years. Last year and this year I raised Marquis that tested 68 and 59 pounds to the bushel. The last wheat I put in this year was on last year's corn ground and it was the best quality wheat I raised. I raised some wheat on ground that was disked in the spring. This is the first time I disked any wheat, but would rather do that than spring plow. The yield was not as heavy as the first sown, but fully as good wheat."

Grows Marquis.

"Have been growing Marquis for eight or ten years," says Mr. J. T. Wild, of Cavalier Co., N. Dak. "I would emphasize—use only the best of seed and that well cleaned. Seed only on fertile soils and seed early. The latter, I think, is very important. Marquis wheat does not seem to be a very popular variety with the neighbors, although we have had pretty good luck with it and think it will pay out well if good seed is used and ground is well prepared and seeding done early."

To Escape Rust.

"I believe an early season is the only escape from rust. There are a considerable number of barberry bushes used for hedges in the villages around here and if there is anything in what they claim that barberry bushes carry rust spores, don't see any reason why they should not be destroyed."—Osmond Groven, Grant Co., Minn.

Seed Bed for Wheat.

"The seed bed for wheat should be firm and packed," says John F. Zimmerman, Cass Co., N. Dak. "Early seeding of not later than the 15th or 20th of April will escape the rust season. It has the last two years, so without any doubt it is the barberry that causes this loss to the wheat growers."

Good Marquis in 1920.

"We have the best Marquis wheat this year we have ever raised," says Erickson Bros., Burley Co., N. Dak. "If we are to expect a crop, the ground must be worked properly. We raised quite a few bushels of Marquis wheat this year and it is all No. 1 seed."

FERRIS PLANES GONE

Washington, Mar. 18.—Uncle Sam has at last eliminated the "ferris" airplanes. They got the name because they made pilots miserable by their tendency to burrow downward in flight. Officials worried about it a lot. Then someone got the bunch to turn the tail section upside down. And that solved the trouble.

JOHNNY WILSON GETS DECISION OVER M. O'DOWD

Bout at Madison Square Garden
Disappointing to Fans

New York, March 18.—Johnny Wilson, world's middleweight champion, retained his title in a 15-round bout with Mike O'Dowd former champion, at Madison Square Garden here last night.

At the end of the battle the judges disagreed and referee Johnny McAvoy of Brooklyn, gave his decision in favor of Wilson.

The bout itself was a rather disappointing one from a vantage standpoint, as each man seemed afraid of the other and O'Dowd only adopted his famous rushing tactics occasionally.

Wilson, who has the longer reach, was able to stand off or outpoint O'Dowd as long as the ex-champion was content to box or spar, but when ever O'Dowd stepped inside to fight in his usual rushing fashion, Wilson was the sufferer.

At least three times during the bout O'Dowd complained that Wilson was hitting low with his left swings to the body. In the 13th, when his heads bumped, blood spouted from a cut over O'Dowd's temple. During the last two rounds, O'Dowd was bothered as a result of this mishap.

O'Dowd was examined in his dressing room by two club physicians after the bout and they reported that he had been struck in the left arm which seemed to substantiate O'Dowd's claim that he had been fouled.

There was heavy wagering on the result. Wilson was a pronounced favorite in the betting during the day, the odds being quoted as 11 to 5, but when the men reached the ring, the betting was largely at even money. When the referee's decision was announced, it was received with neither much applause nor derision by the spectators.

Both principals had weighed in under the stipulated 160 pounds at two this afternoon. Wilson turned the scales at 158 pounds and O'Dowd weighed 159 1/2.

Mike Wants Fight
St. Paul, March 18.—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul, today repeated his challenge to Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, who defeated Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul, in New York last night. "Accounts of the Wilson-O'Dowd battle indicate quite clearly that Wilson is a better fighter and boxer than many people have believed," said Gibbons.

WOMAN WOULD GIVE ANYTHING TO GET RELIEF

Aberdeen Resident Says She Suffered Constantly Before
She Got Tanlac

"I am so overjoyed at the way my health has been restored I feel like telling everybody about Tanlac," said Mrs. John Dietlein, 519 Fifth Ave., S. E., Aberdeen, S. D.

"I certainly have a right to speak well of a medicine that has made me well and happy after I had suffered for two years from disordered stomach, liver and kidneys. Before taking Tanlac I couldn't eat or sleep to do any good, and I suffered all the time from indigestion, nervousness, dizziness, headaches, backaches and a regular combination of ailments. I just felt like I would give anything on earth for something that would relieve me of these troubles and get me to feeling right again.

"Well Tanlac proved to be exactly what I needed, for I began to improve almost as soon as I started taking it. A few bottles have now put me in splendid condition for I eat and sleep as well as anybody and feel perfectly strong and well. I just wish every sick person in the world knew what I know about Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Bismarck by J. S. Breslow in Driscoll by N. D. and J. H. Barette in Wing by H. P. Homan. In Strasburg by Strasburg Drug Co. STRATTON & BARP, REGAN. Adv.

INDEPENDENT PETITIONS ON RECALL HERE

Calls For Election Upon Several of the State Officials

Recall talk is in the air today. Independent petitions for the recall of members of the Industrial Commission, Lieutenant-Governor Wood, Auditor D. C. Poindexter and Judges Bronson, Robinson and Grace, of the supreme court, were received in Bismarck yesterday by Independents. They will be circulated.

The petitions, it is understood, have been sent to various parts of the state from the headquarters of the Independent Voters Association at Fargo. The county convention of the Independents of this county will be held here on March 23. It was predicted by Independent leaders today that this county would send a delegation to Devils Lake, instructed to vote against a recall election.

The recall petitions do not include Nonpartisan members of the railroad commission, the absence of their names from the petitions causing some comment on the streets.

REAL HAWAIIAN DANCER
IN "THE ADORABLE SAVAGE"
Edith Roberts, Universal's piquant star will be seen here at the Orpheum Theatre tonight in "The Adorable Savage," a distinctly different romance, the setting of which is in the South Sea Islands. It is a great help to her director, Norman Dawn. According to her mentor, the little star is forever thinking of some little scheme or detail to make the picture in which she is playing just a little bit better. And never are these suggestions in the least selfish or calculated to bring her more forward on the screen.

One of the instances cited by Mr. Dawn shortly after the filming of "The Adorable Savage" was complete, was the case where Miss Roberts induced Lillian Phillips, the celebrated Hawaiian beauty, to appear in the film in the role of the ceremonial dancer—the first time she had ever appeared before the animated camera. Mr. Dawn was having considerable trouble selecting the proper person for this character, which was a difficult one, requiring a native South Sea Islander who could not only appear cultured, but one who would require no "dubbing" in performing the weird dances of the tropic isles.

Commercial Club

The Back Bone of Bismarck

EVERYONE is interested in the development of the city and state which he is living in and is anxious to know the important things which cause the upbuilding of the community and who are the ones that really build up your city and states. The Bismarck Commercial Club deserves great credit from the citizens of the city to say nothing of the population in Burleigh county, and the state at large for the exceedingly good work they do and have accomplished, and put across so many important projects and developments for the benefit of the city, county and state. In order to give you a better idea of some things which have been done and to acquaint you with; The Bismarck Commercial Club recites a few important things that have been accomplished as follows:

GOOD ROADS:—The Club has always been at the forefront in the promotion of sentiment for good roads, and have endorsed the North Dakota Good Roads Association.

FREE AUTO CAMPS:—It is generally conceded that Bismarck has the best equipped "Free Auto Camp" in the state and one of the best on the National Park Highways between Chicago and the Coast. This was established by the club during last summer. Certain important improvements are necessary and no doubt will be made before the opening of the tourist season.

STATE AFFAIRS:—Bismarck Commercial Club is called upon prior to each session of the legislature to give a voice to the many interests for the city and State.

CONVENTIONS:—The Bismarck Commercial Club is responsible for the bringing of the many different conventions to the city. There was five conventions this year in January and a good many more to follow throughout the year.

MISSOURI RIVER BRIDGE:—The Bismarck Commercial Club started the ball rolling to get this bridge across and they succeeded. If it was not for this Club going after the proposition there would be no chance for a bridge at this time.

Tomorrow we are going to tell you some more of the good things which the Club has done, and we ask you to read every word.

Rheumatism

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It

In the Spring of 1898 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number of people who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with rheumatism, some of them 70 to 80 years old, and results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of getting rid of your rheumatism, you will send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Don't fail! Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today Mark H. Jackson, No. 476G Durston Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y. Mr. Jackson is responsible. Above statement true.
